Alright, this is my real incentive on my real radio. So we got a few things to get into today. First of all, I want to say this. My real radio is available on our radio. So, speaker, internet radio, apple podcast, anchor, Stitcher. So, the easiest way to get it though is marlourourradio.com. All of the podcasts that I do is on Marlour Radio. So, just to get that out the way. One of the top stories in the news right now, other than this COVID-19 madness, is of course, the killing of a mod arbery (Ahmaud Arbery). I want to say this before we even get started into this. So, I don't know what the hell black people are thinking. I see people online saying shit like these motherfuckers going to jail. I'm going to be honest with you. Since Trayvon Martin, I just, I don't see any of these people ever going to jail for real for real. Like even Amber Geiger, what does she get? She get five or 10 years or something like that. I mean, that's nothing when you kill someone murders murder at the end of the day. So, I don't know what black people are talking about. When they talk about these two assholes going to jail. I mean, it's already evident that, more than likely, there's going to be some kind of loophole. Probably similar to what happened to Trayvon Martin. This, this really reminds me of Trayvon Martin all over again. I mean, it has all the writings on the wall. But Trayvon Martin, you remember they had the video recording of the police telling your Zimmerman not to follow him to leave him alone. And he followed them anyway and then claimed that he shot him in self defense. Now, how do you stalk someone followed them and then kill them and say it was self defense. Well, there was the Florida and your ground law. So, now in Georgia, you have this citizens arrest law, or this is the loophole that they're going to use. I don't know what black people are thinking like black people are hard headed this far. You know, black people are hard headed this far (as fuck) black people just don't get it sometimes. I'm not talking about all black people let me let me say that, because I don't want it to be. You know, I don't want to come across like I'm saying that no black people understand there's a lot of black people that understand but for some reason there's still a lot that a lot of black people just don't get it. The law is different when it comes to us and probably everybody else. You know what I mean like a white person killing the black person is not looked at as a heinous crime like as long as they can present a reason as to why they did it. They can find a loophole in the system. Okay, and they can get away with it. By knowing the law and understanding what first was their system anyway. So, there's that. And we always. We always guilty until proven innocent anyway. But this is article here on the daily beast it says don't rush the judgment. Attorneys for our breeze (arbery's), our berries (arbery's) killers claim videos tell a different story. Now I want to say this. How many videos are there? Now the homeowner of the construction site or you know the house that was under construction or whatever it was. It's saying that a moderate we (ahmaud arbery) didn't commit no crime. He walked into the construction site and he didn't take anything. And you would think that would be enough but it's not. It's not see what you have to understand and what you have to realize. You have to take in consideration. Not only his race. I'm talking about a mod already (AA). Not only his race, but you also have to take in consideration location. In the past people have gotten on me about talking shit about the south but. You know (Yo) the south is different. That's not to say that. That the north. You know places like New York and. You know New Jersey and Boston and. Philly like they like it's not racism up there because it's trust me it's very much racist but. The south is different. When it comes to. Just being brazenly racist and openly racist. The north usually they try to like tone it down to try to be political to try to hide it a little bit. But the south man they don't really give no fucks. They don't give no fucks down south. You protest all you want to (they don't) give (a) shit. They don't give a flying fuck. Now. How many videos are there. Because now the defense attorneys are saying that there's another video. It says here in the article (it) says defense attorneys. For the father and son accused of shooting 25 year old (accused of shooting twenty-five-year-old Ahmaud Arbery). And he's saying that there's no one in the library. Said Friday that while video did not tell the full story. There is more than one video of the daily February incident. They (That) may prove their clients have been wrongly vilified. So now they're about to make them into the victims. Just like George Zimmerman did. (And he got a gofundme, or) And (at least) I know he was getting donations from people who sympathize with them. Who felt like (you know) he was a victim even though he stopped. Trayvon Martin but see you have to remember. White aggression towards black people is perceived differently. If then it being the other way around. If a black person was the girl (to go up) to a white person and try to make a citizen's arrest. That would be like. Not only anti constitutional. It would be like. Oh my God. Like you can't do that. You you you are terror in my neighborhood. You can't just go around doing shit like that. (But) When white people do it the black people is considered the norm. It's considered as (it's) considered keeping your community safe. So it's perceived different. And I don't get why black people are like. Oh, it's going to be justice. Who says so? What (where) the fuck you get that from? If (Have) you niggas not learned. What (where) the fuck have you (yall) been. The case is just starting like I mean it's just now beginning and they're already saying. Oh, there's another video that shows some different also read in another article. That the mod (AA was). I believe he was getting water or something like that like he had stopped in the construction site or the house. It was under construction to get water. Like there was a water source. The (A) water source there. Which I mean would make sense if he was jogging. You know what I mean. But then the argument could be maybe why didn't he have his own bottled water that he could run with (you know). You know how this shit goes. Anyway. This is what the attorney attorney for these assholes said. He says this is not some sort of hate crime. If you would buy (Fueled by) racism defense attorney Frank. I think his name is hugh hoke (hogue). Whatever. Fuck him. It says this is what he said in a Friday press conference. He said it it is and remains the case. However, that a young African American male has lost his life to violence. It says Gregory McMichael when his son 34 year old Travis McMichael. He was a young African American male. He was (are) facing murder and aggravated assault charges for allegedly chasing and shooting. Arbery of (on) February 23rd while he was jogging on a residential street in Georgia. Both are being held without bond in a Glen (Glynn) County jail. He was a young African American male. He was a young African American male. He was a young African American male. He was a young African American male. He was a young African American male. He was a young African American male.

(The slaying was somehow described as a lynching with racial undertones, and the subsequent investigation spurred a national outcry and a Department of Justice investigation. Days after a graphic video emerged of the shooting, um, in the Satilla Shores neighborhood of Brunswick. The video depicted the McMichaels, who were armed, chasing Arbery in a white pickup truck before shots were fired during a brief struggle.)

Now I've read online that what I've seen anyway is that some racist assholes online are basically saying, well, he should not have (he should not have) tried to fight them. He should have just turned himself in and allowed them to arrest them. First of all, these motherfuckers aren't the police. Number one, someone run up with a (goddamn) gun. And you're supposed to just stand there, but see, I keep telling you. There's different standards for (for) what black people should do. In these situations, see a black person is not supposed to question white people. I'm telling you how these racist things (think). (This) And their mindset, you have to understand they have a certain mindset that the white supremacy mindset is. Nigger, when I ask you a question, Nigger, you're supposed to answer. And you're supposed to give me an answer in a humble manner. You're not supposed to buck up against my authority, because remember the police was created to capture. Slave runaway slaves. See that mentality is still in the, in the, in the heart, in the mindset of these white supremacists. They, they still, you have (you have) to understand the history of the police. To understand where we are today. You have to take it back. A lot of black people, not a lot, but a lot of sellout niggas. Love to say get over racism, get over the past. Racism isn't the past. There's no passing racism. That shit don't just go away. So it's bullshit. You know what I mean? What did we say (they be saying)? But if you, if you go through history, right, and you see how the KKK was formed, how the police was formed. You understand that it's not really even about having the fucking uniform on. It's not the police department isn't about having a uniform on. It's really about white supremacy. It was created to catch runaway slaves. So what that means is any white person at any moment can become a police officer. And do what they want to do to a black person, make a (ar)rest on a black person in their mindset. That's what's there. (Then) You might talk about the law. It's what I get on certain people about. Like, for example, the Moors. Whenever I talk to people that are Moors or, you know, they claim sovereignty. It might be a, um, sovereign citizen or whatever. And they talk about the law, the law, the law. And I'm like, yo, the white man don't give a fuck about your law. You can produce all the paperwork you want to. And yeah, you may have instances where in court, you might be able to combat certain shit and they might (uh) let you go free. But one thing about it, um, you being confronted with white with a white supremacist with a gun. Your paperwork and your documents don't mean shit. What good is the law if you're dead. You understand. (^\?) They don't give a shit about that. You have to go back. To how the police departments were formed and what the (what the) creation of the police departments, why it was created. You have to go back to the beginning. So what I'm saying, I'm saying, I'll let you (all that to) say this. Prepare yourself mentally. (Cuz) I know y'all going to be pissed off. But you might as well prepare yourself right now. For the day that this church (judge) says not guilty. When it comes to (um) these two (uh) motherfuckers that shot down. A moderate (AA). This is going to be Trayvon Martin all over again. Now if they actually get sentenced. It's like if they literally if they really get a legit jail sentence. (Prison time) I'm talking about real prison time. I'm not talking about no five, ten years like Amber Geiger. I'm talking about real murder charges. Like life in prison. If they actually get that, I would be shocked. I would be shocked. You have to take a (in) consideration. The location. Don't at me. Just (just) think about it. It's Georgia. We're talking about Georgia. You know what I mean? You bro (bruh). Come on, man. I don't know what (what) the fuck black people are thinking. Man, I'll do (I), these comments that I see online. It's (Talking about these motherfuckers) going to jail for life. I'm like, whoa. Slow down there. Who told you that? (x2) You don't think that these people don't know the loopholes in the system when they created the system. This is their system. Fuck you talking about they're going to get (jail) what? I would be shocked. I'm not saying it's impossible. But considering Trayvon Martin. Which happened in Florida. Georgia, Florida, same shit. I would be fucking shocked. And (Ima) if they actually get I'm going to come right back on this damn show. I'm going to go to the hospital tomorrow and system tomorrow (Marbour Sensei Marbour (??)) radio. Got to throw it out there. I would be fucking shocked. I'll come back on the show and (x3) just. (Look) It'd be a cold day in hell, man. (If) This dude actually get justice. Hell is going to freeze the fuck over. I'm going to go to the hospital. (I wanna get to um.) Look, they called it a brief struggle. These motherfuckers came at him with a gun. A brief struggle. It says. (um) I'm going to (lemme) get back to this article on the daily beast. It says the charges against (Mc)Michael's came from more than two months. After Aubrey who was unarmed with (was) shot. Local officials had argued it was justifiable homicide. (You hear that, justifiable homicide.) I want you to pay attention now. Listen to the wording. The charges against the big (Mc)Michael's came more than two months after Aubrey (A) was. Who was unarmed was shot. Local officials. Listen. Listen very closely. Okay. I want you to prepare (yourself mentally for this). (Because) You're going to hit us (hear this) again. Listen to what they're saying in this article. Local officials had argued it was justifiable homicide. It says in (and) the case was shuffled. Two (Through) three prosecutors. Two of whom are now under investigation. Before (it) was ultimately referred to the Georgia bureau of a bureau of investigations. Excuse me. My accident is coming out now. Justifiable homicide. Remember now when Trayvon Martin was killed. It was stand your ground. This one is going to be justifiable homicide. See what they do. They create a gray area. They already. Giving you the loophole right there. Why (While) you're, why (while) you're busy. Ranting and raving on Twitter and Instagram and. Send it (-ing) up. Prairie. Moses (prayer emojis) for the family of a model (AA). Why (while) you're hashtag in (-ing) on Twitter. You know, justice for a model (AA). I'll ask you (All that's cute). What you're not looking at is the language. Listen to the language. Justifiable homicide. Listen to the language. Justifiable homicide. Now listen, (21:46)

you (, you) see that cop beat the shit out of this black dude in New York. I'm not even going to get into that. I meant to, I'm sorry (yall). I've been slacking about away. I want to say this. I've been getting a lot of people saying, yo, why you fuck you ain't (uh, you ain't) doing your podcast. I'm still doing the fucking podcast, bro. Yeah, I got to get out of this YouTube mentality. Fuck you too (YouTube). (I'm not gon' post everything on YouTube, bruh. Fuck YouTube.) YouTube is on some bullshit, man. They've been censoring everybody. They censored David (like). I did (They) already (uh) since it (censored, uh, um, uh) was (what's) his name, Alex Jones. Okay. But that is an insisted (they ain't (?) gon' censor) David. I, (ait.) but my show is, is available in so many different places. If you got our (iHeart) radio, you can find more (Marlbor Radio there).

(All my shows are gonna be there. Um, if you just want news only, then, um, you know, you can go to the Marrow report. And um you can just find, just find um, my news, my news show. Um, I'm gonna try to, y'all know me and scheduling is bad, right? So don't hold me to it, but imma try to, what imma try to do is, um, do the marrow report on, with just the news show, right, getting just, getting into the news or whatever, imma try to do that on Mondays. And, oh excuse me, not Mondays, excuse me, Tuesdays, excuse me, clear that up. Um, on Tuesdays, imma try to do that on Tuesdays, uh, about 7 pm. And imma try to, uh, do marrow uncensored where I just talk about whatever. Those are my rants, those are my "fuck the world" rants. Imma try to do that on Fridays. And the reason why is because, um, by that time, um, I'm pretty sure throughout the week some stupid shit done happened, and imma be pissed off about it. And um, so anyway, um, getting back to what I was saying, we gotta get out of this mindset of, you can just do whatever, like, like you're free. Nigga you not free. And you might say, "Well nigga, I ain't trying to live like a slave." Nigga you a slave in America. You know what you good for? Entertainment, and, and servitude. Being a servant. You might say, "Nigga how is that possible I got money." Money don't make you free nigga. I don't give a fuck how much money Jay-Z got, Jay-Z still gotta answer to the powers that be. I don't give a fuck how many people he might have sacrificed. I don't give a fuck, you know what I mean, how, how many, I don't wanna be graphic, I don't, but I don't mean, I don't care how many rides he might have blown, who he might've got on his knees and, and, and did whatever for, you know what I mean? I don't, I don't care how much you sell out, nigga you not free. I don't care how much money you got nigga you not free. He still has to answer to the powers that be. A'ight? So, I'm saying that, say this: Let this be a lesson, man. He went jogging, he probably went into that, um, into that house, or that, whatever, was under construction, that house that was under construction and saw that there was a water source there, and he stopped to get a drink of, a drink of water or whatever, probably looked around. And um, you know, the beefed, I've seen white people online that have said that um, they do that all the time, they just like, they go jogging, they might see a place under construction, they might stop and look around. There's reasonable white people out here, believe it or not. Right? Um, and they, you know, and they pissed off about it too. They're pissed off about it too. 'Cause they know this shit doesn't make sense. But um, I just, I wish the brother hadn't've made that stop. You know, I wish the brother had his own water with him while he was running, while he was jogging. Also, I saw another um, news report that said that racists online are using, they've replaced the word "nigger" with "jogger", as a way of mocking, um, Ahmaud Arbery. So be prepared for that online. If you one of those people that's on social media, um, all the time, and, and you, or you reading various news articles, you're gonna see a lot of uh, coded racism, um, with white supremacists using "jogger". "Oh he must have been another jogger." Right? In other, and in other words instead of saying "nigger" they gonna say "jogger". They gon' call you a "jogger". "Oh he's a jogger." Right? Um, you know, and they using that to um, keep themselves from being blocked, or reported, or banned. So, you know, I'm just, you know, just, I mean obviously they hate us, water under the bridge, who gives a shit what these cocksuckers think, but it's, but it is what it is, um. But I do wish that that brother had not had stopped there, to go take a drink of water. I wish he had his own water. And I'm saying what I'm saying because black people gotta be thinking sometimes about how you're perceived and how you're looked at. You're thought of as a criminal first. That's why they approached him with the gun. They didn't come to him and say "Hey what are you doing buddy. Why," you know, "why are you in that construction" Even that would've been harassment, but, they came with the gun. And especially, and I hate to keep harping on this, but especially when you down south?! See when you go about your daily life as a black man in America, when you going about your daily life, you have to be mindful, you have to be, uh, mindful of these things. You, you have to be thinking like that. You have to be thinking like how they're thinking. And you can try to break bad and act tough all you want to. But at the end of the day the law is in their favor.)

They can shoot you and get away with it, bro. You're not shooting them and getting away with it. Are(n't) they trying to file charges now against the guy? (Um,) Yeah (yall), I forgive me. I forget the woman's name. The lady that was killed in her own home, police came in there (without uniform. I think they, they weren't, they weren't uniformed, but they came into the house, to the apartment,) and shot and killed that woman. I can't take (think of) her name right now. (Um,) I meant to talk about it earlier this week anyway. (Um, but, her, I don't know if it was) Her boyfriend or husband. (But he um,) I believe he shot back or something like that. Damn. I didn't (I didn't) pull the damn article (up). I've been so busy. I've been so fucking busy. I read it and then I just, my mind is gone blank. But anyway, they're trying to bring up charges on the boyfriend. Like, dude, someone broke into their house. They're trying to charge him with shooting the police officer. Police officers(.) keep this (in) mind. Police officers out of uniform, busting (bust in) to this manhouse (man house). And he's not allowed to protect them. So he's not how it's like, how (, how) dare you. Shoot back. (Bruh) I'm not (It's) going to be a shit storm. It's getting to the point now where this is becoming an everyday thing. Shit is getting turned up, man. It's getting turned up. It's going to get heated. Especially, I don't know what's going to happen when this actually goes down and when they when that jury find these two. (Uh,) These two, what are the names of my (Mc) Michael(s) to make (Mc)Michaels when they find them not guilty? Because that's probably what's going to happen. If I had to make a prediction, I think they're going to find them not guilty when that happens. I don't know how you going to react. But I know this is going to get crazy in the language. And what I'm reading, the language almost tells me that these two are going to get off. Just the fire, but homicide (Justifiable homicide). Just remember that. Remember, I told you, just the fire, but homicide (justifiable homicide). That's the loophole. That's the language that they're using. They already set in (setting) the stage. I'm telling you. Before I get off here, let me. Let me go to the. To the article about the young. The young woman that was that was killed. In our (her) apartment. Because I've I've watched that earlier. I couldn't think of her name and I know. I knew her name, but I couldn't fucking think of it for shit. My mom (mind) went blank, but it was Briana (Breonna) Taylor. The EMT worker. Let me. Let me see. There was an article that was saying that they're now trying to charge her boyfriend. For. For shooting back. And. It just shows you the mentality, man. Look, you can't. You cannot. Try to use the law. They say, man, you're trying to discourage people. Look, man, I'm being honest. I'm keeping it real. I'm not. The same rules don't apply. And this was in the south also. This is this was in Kentucky. I wouldn't be surprised if I found a loophole around this shit. I wish I could find the damn article. I lost it. It's got to be in here somewhere. Where they said they're now trying to charge her boyfriend who was defending his home. Now. For review, no, no, I can't find it. I find all these damn stories about Breonna Taylor, but I can't find the one where they, they're telling you that they are. They are looking to charge her boyfriend. So anyway, maybe I'll maybe I'll address that next week, but. That's my rant for the week, man. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week. I'm going to go to the next week.

(Marrow uncensored and Marrow radio, Marrow radio .com. Again, you can, I will post some things up on YouTube, but everything is not gonna be there. YouTube is fucking with my algorithm, algorithms, they striking my videos like crazy... I can't talk about shit anymore, and they are censoring like fucking crazy right now.)

If you haven't noticed, everyone is being sensitive (censored), even people that don't even talk like I talk, because I can say some horrific, some horrific shit sometimes, but even people that just even mentioned the CV virus. You know, any little thing, because what they're doing is they get rid of independent media on major platforms such as YouTube. They get rid of anything that's independent media. They don't give a shit if you're being politically correct or not. They want only mainstream media. An example of that is I made a video that out of video. It was a podcast that I uploaded to YouTube. And I was talking about a KKK rally and they struck the video. Now check this out. CNN reported on it MSNBC reported on it. They didn't get struck. They were allowed to talk about it. I didn't even say anything really crazy. All I did was report on it. There (It) was a literal news report. And they struck the fucking video. So what I'm saying is if you really want to tune in, if you really fuck with me like that. Marrowwellradio.com is (. It's) that simple. And like I said, if you want to go to the apps, Spotify, I'm there. You know what I mean? I'm there. Apple podcast. I'm there. Stitcher. I'm there. I already on (iHeartRadio I'm) there. And fortunately for me and oh, speaker, definitely speaker, but fortunately for me. I saw this coming a long time ago. And I started putting my. My podcast on these other. Apps. I made sure that I put it on all these other apps. So I pretty much became YouTube. I became independent of YouTube. So it was no longer a necessity, necessity for me. Like I don't. The pendant (Depend) on YouTube for my audience and. Mainly as a (of) right now. (My biggest numbers are coming in through Spotify) And that's for both of my. Both. That's for both the mark on Marrow radio and the more report. So it is what it is(, man). I'm going to close out right there. Until next time. (Peace yall.)
